Hello RPA Families!

I know that you heard a lot about our silent auction in the fall, but I wanted to report on how the money was spent. As you know, we planned to put the funding towards technology, and we did.

RPA has purchased 17 new Chromebooks, which will allow for more students to access technology for writing, research, Latin, skills practice, and grade checks.

This is very exciting to our students and teachers!

-Mrs. Hans

Pillar of the Month: Honesty

Announcements

- NO SCHOOL THIS FRIDAY, Dec 14th. This is a change from the school calendar.
- A Lost and Found area has been started in the main building, outside of the science room. If your child is missing anything, please have them check in that area.
- Students involved in P.E. are now active every day. If you are looking to get more plain gray shirts, remember that JCPenney and Michaels have them year round.
- The Key Club event of “Cookies and Crafts with Santa” was a success! Seventy five people from the community attended.
- Winter Break Dec 14-Jan 2

Reminders:

- Saturnalia event, this Thursday, December 13th, during school hours. Dress comfortably as students will be playing dodgeball, making signs and performing skits.
- School Returns Wednesday, Jan 2, 2019, from Winter Break
- School will be Wednesday- Friday, Jan 2-4, 2019 the week we return.

This Week’s Events:

- Homework Club with Ms. Tosti tomorrow from 3:30-5:30pm.
- Saturnalia celebrations will begin at 10:30 am on Thursday.